WHEREAS, the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina, has taken into full consideration all statements and information presented at a joint public hearing held with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission on the 17th day of November, 1986, on the question of designating a property known as the "Hamilton C. Jones House" as historic property; and

WHEREAS, the "Hamilton C. Jones House" is one of the finest local examples of the Tudor Revival style of architecture"; and

WHEREAS, the "Hamilton C. Jones House" was designed by Martin Boyer, an important figure in the history of architecture in Charlotte-Mecklenburg; and

WHEREAS, the "Hamilton C. Jones House" occupies a pivotal position in terms of the townscape of Eastover, one of Charlotte's premier suburbs, designed for the E. C. Griffith Company by Earle Sumner Draper; and

WHEREAS, the initial owner of the "Hamilton C. Jones House",

Hamilton C. Jones (1884-1957), was a prominent attorney, jurist, civic leader, and, from 1946 until 1952, member of the United States House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission has demonstrated that the property known as the "Hamilton C. Jones House" possesses integrity of design, setting, workmanship, materials, and/or association; and

WHEREAS, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission has demonstrated that the property known as the "Hamilton C. Jones House" possesses special significance in terms of its history, architecture, and/or cultural importance; and

WHEREAS, the property known as the "Hamilton C. Jones House" is vested in fee simple to James A. Risser & Wife, Virginia C. Risser.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina:

1. That the property known as the "Hamilton C. Jones House" (the exterior and the interior of the house and the entire lot upon which the house is located) is hereby designated as historic property pursuant to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina. For purposes of description only, the location of said property is noted as being situated at 201 Cherokee Road, Charlotte, North Carolina, and recorded on Tax Parcel Number 155-074-01 in the Mecklenburg County Tax Office.

2. That said designated property may be materially altered, restored, moved or demolished only following the issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission. An application for a Certificate of Appropriateness authorizing the demolition of said property may not be denied. However, the effective date of such a Certificate may be delayed in accordance with Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, and amendments thereto, and hereinafter adopted.

3. That nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent or delay the ordinary maintenance or repair of any architectural feature in or on said property that does not involve a change of design, material, or outer appearance thereof, nor to prevent or delay the making of emergency repairs, nor to prevent or delay the construction, reconstruction, alteration, restoration, demolition or removal of any such feature when a building inspector or similar official certifies to the Commission that such action is required for the public safety because of an unsafe condition. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the property owner from making any use of this property not prohibited by other statutes, ordinances, or regulations.

4. That a suitable sign may be posted indicating that said property has been designated as historic property and containing any other appropriate information. If the owner consents, the sign may be placed on said property.

5. That the owners and occupants of the property known as the "Hamilton C. Jones House" be given notice of this ordinance as required by applicable law and that copies of this ordinance be filed and indexed in the offices of the City Clerk, Building Standards Department, Mecklenburg County Register of Deeds, and the Tax Supervisor, as required by applicable law.

6. That which is designated as historic property shall be subject to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, and any amendments to it and any amendments hereinafter adopted.
