

Victor Shaw CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Born in Charlotte, January 20, 1888. Attended graded school in Charlotte.

December, 1920, married Miss Elsie Babbitt of Franklinville, N. Y. Son, Victor Jr.; daughter, Elsie.

In the first World War he was commissioned a Second Lieutenant and upon discharge, as he says, "started life the hard way, by hard work." He was Superintendent of the Ford Assembly Plant; served on the County Civil Service Commission three years; and upon the death of his father assumed ownership of the Victor Shaw Company, which has grown to become one of the outstanding tire distribution points of the Carolinas. He is also President of The Howard Johnson Restaurant in Charlotte.

Member of the Shrine, Deacon in Myers Park Presbyterian Church, Member Myers Park Country Club. His hobbies, which have attracted national attention, are farming, raising cattle and poultry.

As Mayor of Charlotte he has done an outstanding job, and maintains an office where the door is always open.
