Ordinance – Kimberlee Apartments

WHEREAS, the Kimberlee Apartments (c. 1965) is one of Charlotte’s most distinctive intact mid-20th century Modernist apartment towers; and

WHEREAS, the unique architectural significance of the six-story Kimberlee is evident in its distinguishing Modernist style, massing, and – as one of Charlotte’s few three-or-more-stories-tall apartment towers from the 1960s – height; and

WHEREAS, the Kimberlee and its grounds and associated auxiliary structures continue to maintain a high level of integrity, remaining substantially in accordance with the original plans of local Modernist architect Charles Morrison Grier, who combined innovative styling and an array of then-state-of-the-art amenities to elevate the Kimberlee into a unique Charlotte landmark; and

WHEREAS, the Kimberlee also represents mid-20th century metropolitan innovation as one of North Carolina’s first co-op apartment buildings and, given its development adjacent to the then-nascent Park Road Shopping Center, as a unique testament to how the convenience and proximity of retail supported suburban migration from Charlotte’s uptown during the city’s rapid post-World War II growth; and

WHEREAS, based on the additional information further detailed in the Local Historic Landmark Designation Report on the Kimberlee Apartments (April 2021), all of which is incorporated herein by reference, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Landmarks Commission has demonstrated that the property known as the Kimberlee Apartments possesses special significance in terms of its history, architecture, and/or cultural importance; and

WHEREAS, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Landmarks Commission has jurisdiction over portions of the property known as the Kimberlee Apartments, because

However, the effective date of such Certificate may be delayed in accordance with Chapter 160D, Article 9, of the General Statutes of North Carolina as amended.
