WYOMING
HISTORICAL SOCIETY
1923-1924
The building was constructed in 1923-1924 by the Barton Malow Company, Inc. It was originally used as a warehouse for the company's construction materials.
The building is a fine example of the Art Deco style and is one of the best preserved buildings of its kind in the state. It is now owned by the Wyoming Historical Society and is open to the public for tours and events.

Leeper-Wyatt Grocery Store

In 1903, local entrepreneur O.A. Tompkins (1853-1944) built a grocery store on this site to serve the textile workers at the nearby Anderson Mill. Pleasant Lafayette Wyatt (1864-1942), from Rowan County, was the first partner in the business. Reverend Hugh V. Leeper, helped manage the new store. Until the advent of "supermarkets" in the 1950s, the Leeper-Wyatt Store provided Charlotte residents with fresh grocery products. The store is an example of the many small businesses that prospered alongside Charlotte's numerous textile mills.
