

On-going HLC Staff Issues/Projects for 2023

1. Pursuing Stafford Slave Cabin stabilization with funding from City of Charlotte

2. Pursuing easements for:
 - a. Stafford Slave Cabin, Charlotte
 - b. Lingle Hut, Davidson

c. Rogers House, Huntersville

d. Historic 1st Ward Houses at 801 and 815 E 8th St

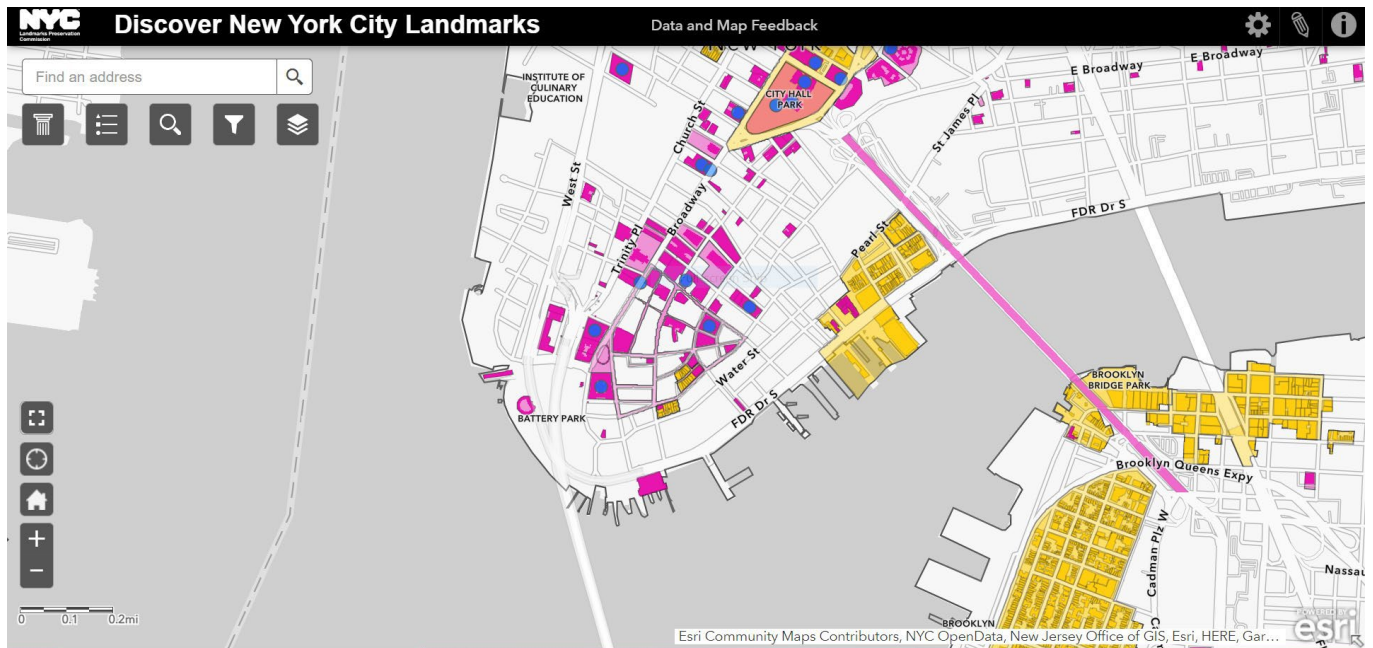

e. Simmons House, Hermitage Court, Charlotte

3. The HLC 50th Anniversary Projects

a. New GIS application highlighting historic properties

- b. Develop new historic markers throughout the county.
4. Development of the Huntersville Rosenwald roadside marker. Design similar to below.

5. Participating in the Cornelius Ag Building/museum development plan

6. Davidson Initiative

- a. Pursuing designation for the Falls House, the Endangered Tudors

- b. Seeking preservation solutions for the Logan and Cathey Houses.

- c. Supporting the development of a town master preservation plan

7. Supporting the development of the Town Master Plan for Huntersville

8. Matthews

a. Supporting the development of Outen Pottery neighborhood park

<http://landmarkscommission.org/2022/12/19/the-town-of-matthews-green-scene-is-growing-historic-r-f-outen-pottery-is-becoming-a-park/>

b. Facilitating Matthews Presbyterian Church adaptive reuse

9. Working with Mecklenburg County Park and Rec on interpretation of the historic Shuffletown Dragstrip Site

10. Abernathy House, Pleasant Grove Rd. Working with LUESA to preserve house from landfill development

11. Survey of Rural Hill Marker

12. Working with developers of the Cole Mfg Plant to preserve the character and integrity of the historic buildings.

13. Pursuing the designation of 801 E 8th St., the Bojangles Restaurant original location at La Salle St.

14. Pursuing the designation of Sinister Wisdom, 3116 Country Club Drive, Charlotte, an historic LGBTQ site.

15. Working with Charlotte Douglas International Airport on the subdivision of the property associated with the historic WPA Hanger.

16. Working with the developers on the reuse of the Steele Creek Presbyterian Church

- 17. Collaborate with LUESA on improving the GIS/Permit holds layers.
- 18. Establish Statewide significance for all eligible Mecklenburg County properties, which could give the properties protection from demolition.
- 19. Working with the City of Charlotte Long Range Planning Division to ensure that historic resources are recognized.
- 20. Staff serves on the Historic Latta Steering Committee, helping to plan how that historic resource can serve, engage, and educate the community.

21. Continue to develop a Google Map layer highlighting historic properties.

